7 ANDREW JOHN GIBSON,)

ORDER

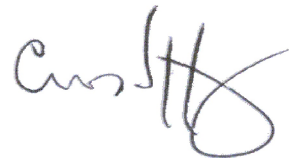

8 Defendant.)
9 _____)

10 Before the Court is pro se Defendant Andrew Gibson's motion for court appointed law
11 library hours (ECF No. 99), filed October 21, 2016. The government did not file a response. In his 12 motion, Gibson explains that he is representing himself in the current criminal matter, and desires to
13 obtain five to eight hours of court appointed legal law library time instead of the one hour per day
14 currently allowed for each detainee. The Court construes his request to include a request for 15 computer research time.

16 Gibson indicates that the law library is open a total of about 14 hours per day. He does not 17 indicate whether he is utilizing the time slots available to him, or whether he has requested additional 18 law library time or computer time in order to prepare for his upcoming trial. Absent evidence that 19 Gibson is fully utilizing the time available to him to prepare for trial, the Court declines to grant his 20 motion at this time.

21 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Defendant Gibson's motion (ECF No. 99) is DENIED 22 without prejudice.
